AT THE OBSCURE NIGHT

EN LA NIT FOSCA

BY RAIMON MIRANDA

A man is bitten on the hand by a young vampire. His life transforms drastically in real time, despite the support of his friends and his girlfriend, which can stop the damage spreading gradually throughout his body. He attempts to protect himself with poetry and culture, as a possible cure. But from here, a fierce fight between his human and vampire parts takes his soul slowly and inexorably, and in order not to cease being the same person, a fully formed human being, the protagonist takes the drastic decision, to save his girlfriend.
