I AM

JO SOC

BY PATRICIA M. FÉLIX

Four 16-year-olds in a classroom are about to watch a movie. The projector turns on in that same classroom and begins an initiatory journey of their school growth from the age 4 to 12.

Mia is sensitive and thoughtful. Manuel seeks to be the leader. Candela is charismatic and dramatic and Nil is sincere and has lot of difficulties.

In these 8 years they will discover fundamental issues that will mould their adult life. They will become aware of who they are by facing their fears and conflicts. They will learn to listen and be heard. They will assume their emotions and relationships from the different roles that are generated in this micro society: the classroom of a school.
